QUALIFICATIONS: ANY STUDENT ATTENDING WILLISTON STATE COLLEGE

DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 1ST, 2023 – SPRING SEMESTER

Doris Marcoux was a lifelong educator and established an educational endowment to assist students in pursuing a college education. As a former teacher her endowment gives primary consideration to students planning on becoming a teacher and/or entering the field of education.

The funds shall be used for the sole purpose of contributing to the tuition, books, and supplies of the student. All monies will be paid directly to Williston State College and must be used at Williston State College.

All funds paid for tuition must be repaid if the scholarship awardee drops classes, and/or withdraws from Williston State College during the semester for which the funds are used.

Each applicant must have had a "C" average or better scholastic standing during high school and/or college and evidence of a general aptitude for higher learning. Applicants must meet admission requirements for Williston State College.

Scholarships are awarded on a semester-by-semester basis, so recipients will need to complete an application for each semester that they attend Williston State College.
